Watch Edmonton Grow in 1926!

THE NEW BULLETIN, a few days ago, published some general information about Edmonton and Alberta, and THE NEW BULLETIN, a few days ago, published some general information about Edmonton and Alberta, and a few of the necessary things we as citizens should do to hasten the day when Edmonton will assume its rightful place as Western Canada's greatest manufacturing and distributing centre, Alberta is already rapidly becoming the most prosperous of any provinces in the Dominion. Read the following facts and mail this paper to one of your friends:
Alberta's population is more than 440.000, population of 80.378; is the capital of Alberta, and the home of the provincial university buildings, a modern, splendidly equipped institution with 1.300 students,
Edmonton is the railway centre for Alberta.
Alberta's telephone system has 67.000 subscribers.
In 1900 Alberta had under cultivation 1,000,000 acres.
In 1925 she had under cultivation 1,100,000 cores, still only one-sixth of the total acrage possible of cultivation of unitvation of cultivation of

In 1920 sne had under curvation 1.00.000 acres, sun only one sixth of the total acreage possible of cultivation. In 1905 Alberta raised 3,000,000 bushels of wheat. In 1925 she raised 110,000,000.

In 1905 Alberta had 1,000,000 pounds of creamery butter. In 1925 she had 20,000,000 pounds. In 1905 her mineral production was $4,000,000. In 1925 it was $30,090,000.

1925 it was $30,000,000. In

The new beet sugar industry at Raymond will manufacture annually 120,000 aacks of beet sugar.

Alberta now has 100,000 ares in corn.

Alberta is now producing 7,000,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas a year.

Alberta has the richest oil well on the continent, producing 400 barrels of pure gaseline daily.

In North-Eastern Alberta there has just been opened up a salt well, and a salt refinery is being established.

Alberta's assessment of land slone is over $725,000,000,000.

What are you doing to help? You can aid very materially by writing your friends back east, in the old lands, and the United States.

AN OPEN TRAIL NEXT SUMMER?

The demand for such improvement of the existing roads as will establish a motor highway from Edmonton to Peace River is one that should be energetically backed of by the city board of trade and other public bodies which may be induced that the health of the case, and one that should have the hearty support of all.

A motor highway to the Peace would draw thousands of tourists to and through Edmonton thousands of tourists to and through Edmonton thex summer. The fame of that great unsettled stretch of fertile country is particularly well-lawer to the middle States, and has been sounded across the continent for a generation. It is still unsettled only because at the she can call that was said its no more, and all that withered heath the frest little still has charms at forty-tous.

Do You Remember?

From the Edmonton Bulletin, Saurday, Jan. will speed the time when its aveal at an an inducement to come this way? An impression of the tourists will become the work of the present moment planning their road trips for next summer. What has Edmonton to offer them has an inducement to come this way? An impression of the Peace can be put in first class condition before the holidly season opens, six ments hence. Time was that I was rich and proud And fewerd on shadow that could fall, I was with priceless girls endowed. But somehow I have lost them all.

I've lost my appetite for pie,
I've lost the strength I que peaseased,
I've lost the basehall batting eye
With which my days of sport were blest;
I've lost that old-time hunger which
Made every meal a rare delight,
I'me was that I was very rich,
For I slept soundly every night.

Through many a fortune I have run,
I've lost the charm in little things.
Now winter's cold or summer's sun
A fear of dreadful liliness brings;
No more I mock at warnings grave
Or haugh at hurts which may beful
Then I had strength, and I was brave,
But somehow I have lost it all.

THE HOUR OF THE ROSE

HEBREW psalmist, who knew well the quiet beauty of the countryside at twilight, sang the words:
"Be still and know that I am God."
One of the finest things about a vacation in the summer-time the opportunity it gives to get out under an open sky in the acc of the twilight.
In those moments between the burning reality of day and the ick actuality of night comes what someone has called "the hour the rose."

In those moments between the burning reality of day and the black actuality of night comes what someone has called "the hour of the rose."

The world is warm and tired and pacific; the day is calm with the calm of old age.

Heavy with earth clores the air drowses as twillight on little grey feet creeps with the lengthening shadows.

The hour of the rose is an hour of meditation, an hour of vision, an hour when the spirit burns like a candle flame, straight and calm, unworried by the winds of toil.

It is a time of contemplation.

Under an open sky, spread like a hand in benediction, it is

PERCY STICKNEY GRANT IN GOTHAM PULPIT — The former sector of the Episcopal Church of the Ascension. New York (above), is shown giving his first sermon since Bishoon Macrin med him the right to marry a divorce. He spoke as Marks in the Bouverie on December 27

WINS HIGHEST SCOUT AWARD—Miss Alta Ashley (above), of Allaton, Mass. a student at Mt. Holyoke college, who has received the Golden Eaglet. She also holds 29 merit badges, a senior lifesaving model of the Red Cross and a special merit medal

NOT FROM QUEBEC, but from Liabon, Portugal, does this typical trolley car scene come. The city fathers were apparently to keen on the idea of building Liabon, like Rome, on seven hills, they forgot how queer 20th century cars would look

RENOUNCES BROADWAY—Baron Willy Knobloch Dresse (above). Genman aristocat, night edub dancer, friend of Henn now seeks consolation in the broadwale Egyptian murmy, who now seeks consolation in the manual discovered by his father, president of the Hamburg Chambrer of dommerce, he came to New York

FROM CONGRESSWOMAN TO REPORTER—Mrs. Alice Rebertson, former United States lawmaker from Oklahoma, now irequents the Capitel's Halls as a newspaper representative. She is shown getting a statement from Rep. Charles Stedman, of North Carolina, the oldest member of the House

CHECKERS ON BIG SCALE—The game of outdoor checkers being played between two old timers on the world's largest board at Clearwater, Fla. The group of spectators, including native sons and winter residents, are apparently as much absorbed as the contestants

PROTEST PAYING EX-KAISER—A huge demonstration was held in Berlin recently to protest against the government's deession to pay millions to the former laster and other ex-royalty. Photo shows placards carried by the crowd, comparing the Withelm's thirty million marks to the seven given to wounded

FATFIER OF BASKETBALL — Dr. James Naismith, who invented the floor game while a student in 1861, is shown above, giving his son a few pointers. He is now a member of the faculty of the University of Kanssa home of the Milford, O., liquor court and was built with funds collected from bootlegging fines. Adjoining is the local fire hall and the machines for pumping the

H.R.H. AT TOC H BIRTHDAY—The tenth anniversary of the foundation of the now historic club was celebrated recently in Albert Hall. London, when the Prince of Wales lighted 32 Lamps of Maintenance, to be carried to various branches in the British Empire, South America and the United States. About 6,000 witnessed the ceremony shows above
